 4. Venue. [Effective December 1, 2021]
 5. Responsive Pleadings.
 6. Rules of Evidence.
 7. Appeals.
- Appendix of Forms

Editor's notes. — These rules were published on December 15, 1989 and became effective on February 13, 1990, as called for in the court order adopting the rules.

Rule 1. Scope of Rules.

These rules govern procedure in small claims cases in circuit courts. Statutes governing small claims cases which are in conflict with these rules are superseded.

History:

Amended May 9, 2000, effective July 1, 2000; amended December 2, 2002, effective January 6, 2003.

Cross references.

— As to justices of the peace and constables, see chapter 4 of title 5. As to circuit courts, see chapter 9 of title 5.

Rule 2. Forms.

Form No. 1, designated Small Claims Affidavit and Notice to Plaintiff and Defendant, together with Form No. 2, designated Summons with Return, attached hereto, shall be adopted for use in all circuit courts in processing small claims cases.

History:

Amended May 9, 2000, effective July 1, 2000;

amended December 2, 2002, effective January 6, 2003.

Rule 3. Filing Fees.

The fee for filing small claims actions shall be ten dollars ($10.00) in circuit courts.

History:

Amended May 9, 2000, effective July 1, 2000;

amended December 2, 2002, effective January 6, 2003.

Rule 4. Venue. [Effective until December 1, 2021]

A defendant in small claims actions may only be sued in the county in which the defendant has an address. (W.S. 1-21-203)

Rule 4. Venue. [Effective December 1, 2021]

A defendant in small claims actions may be sued in the county in which the defendant has an address or where the cause of action or some part thereof arose. (W.S. 1-21-203)

History:

Amended August 3, 2021, effective December 1, 2021.

Rule 5. Responsive Pleadings.

No answer nor responsive pleading shall be required in small claims actions.

Rule 6. Rules of Evidence.

Strict rules of evidence shall not apply in trials of small claims actions. Irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded. A court may in its discretion receive the type of evidence commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their serious business affairs. Hearsay that is probative, trustworthy and credible may be received into evidence.

Rule 7. Appeals.

Appeals of small claims actions to district court shall be processed pursuant to W.R.A.P. and only on questions of law and not for a review of the sufficiency of evidence. (Johnson v. Statewide Collections, Inc., 778 P.2d 93 (Wyo. 1989)).

History:

Amended February 23, 1999, effective June 9, 1999.

Cross references. — As to district courts in general, see § 5-3-101 et seq.
