NOTICE OF INCARCERATION OR IMPRISONMENT

I, _____, state that the Respondent in this matter is or has been incarcerated or imprisoned. The period of incarceration/imprisonment coincided with the effective period of a Domestic Violence Order of Protection issued by this Court. That Order of Protection, currently in effect, is mandatorily tolled under W.S. 35-21-106(b)(ii), which reads in pertinent part:

> If a party subject to an order of protection is sentenced and incarcerated or becomes imprisoned the running of the time remaining for the order of protection shall be tolled during the term of incarceration or imprisonment. The conditions and provisions of an order of protection shall remain in effect during any period of tolling under this paragraph. Upon release from incarceration or imprisonment the effective period of the order of protection shall be the amount of time remaining as of the first day of the term of incarceration or imprisonment or one (1) year from the date of release, whichever is greater.

I ask this Court to take notice of the following:
