The Respondent has twenty days from the date this Order is served or received to file an Objection or Request for a Hearing, otherwise this Order shall remain in full force and effect.

The Respondent has the right to contest this new expiration date. To do so, the Respondent must file a written request for a hearing with this court. If such a request is made, a hearing will promptly be scheduled. At the hearing, the Respondent may present testimony or evidence regarding the dates of incarceration and the calculation of the new expiration date.

The Respondent is advised that tolling occurs even if the incarceration did not relate in any way to the order of protection or to the Petitioner.
