The Court Orders the Parties to Take Notice of the Following:

Certain provisions of the Federal Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 make it unlawful for persons subject to applicable protection orders to possess, ship, use, or transfer any firearms or ammunition. Gun Control Act, 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(8).

This Order shall be filed with the clerk of court and a copy shall be sent by the clerk to the county sheriff who shall, after service, notify the local law enforcement agency within the county in which the Petitioner resides. The Order shall be personally served upon the Respondent, unless the Respondent or the Respondent's attorney was present in person or by remote means when the Order was granted.

This Order applies to the Respondent immediately upon service and shall remain in full force and effect until the expiration date of the Order or until it is modified or terminated by this Court.

Interstate violation of this order may subject the Respondent to federal criminal penalties. 18 U.S.C. §§ 2261, 2261 (A) and 2262.

This protection order is enforceable in all fifty states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands and U.S. territories, and is issued to prevent violent or threatening acts by the Respondent against the Petitioner. 18 U.S.C. § 2265.

It is a crime to use a telephone or other telecommunications device to annoy, abuse, harass, or threaten another person at the called number. 47 U.S.C. § 223 (a)(1)(C), W.S. 6-6-103.

If the Respondent named on this Order is incarcerated or imprisoned, for any reason, while the Order is in effect, the effective time of the Order will toll. The Order will be in effect longer based on the date when the Respondent is released. W.S. 7-3-510(b)(ii). The parties are encouraged to file a Notice of Incarceration or Imprisonment to notify the Court of the jail/prison time and receive an Order stating the new expiration date.

The Order of Protection remains in effect and must be followed during an appeal or review. The only exception is if the Court issues a stay to put the Order on hold while the appeal or review is ongoing.

W.S. 7-3-510(e): "An order of protection granted under W.S. 7-3-506 through 7-3-512 shall remain effective during the pendency of any appeal or review of the order of protection or any decision to modify or extend the order of protection, unless a court orders a stay during the pendency of the appeal or review."

WARNING TO RESPONDENT: The Petitioner cannot give you legal permission to violate this order. If you go near the Petitioner or other protected persons, even with their consent, you may be arrested. You act at your own risk if you disregard this WARNING. If you want to modify or dismiss the order you must ask the Court. Only the Court can change this Order.

Willful violation of any provision of this Order of Protection constitutes a crime as defined by W.S. 7-3-510(c) and can result in immediate arrest. A violation of this Order of Protection that constitutes the offense of stalking as defined by W.S. 6-2-506(b), may subject the Respondent to enhanced penalties for felony stalking under W.S. 6-2-506(e).
