
AFFIDAVIT FOR DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY
(Deceased With No Last Will and Testament)
(Under Wyoming Statute 2-1-201)

STATE OF _____) ) ss.
COUNTY OF _____)

1. My name is _____.

The name of the Decedent (the person who died) is _____.

I believe I have a right to receive property that was owned by the Decedent.

I am making this Affidavit according to Wyoming Statute 2-1-201 in order to establish right and title to the tangible personal property owned by the Decedent. By making this Affidavit, I am declaring that I am a Distributee (person entitled to claim property) of the Decedent.

2. The Decedent died on _____, 20____.

3. More than 30 days have passed since the Decedent died. (This Form cannot be used until at least 30 days have passed since the death of the Decedent.).

4. The Decedent did not have a Last Will and Testament.

5. Select only one:

☐ I am claiming all of the personal property that was owned by the Decedent, no matter where it is located.

OR

☐ I am claiming specific items of personal property that were owned by the Decedent. I have described the items in the paper labelled Exhibit A, which is attached to and part of this Affidavit.

The total amount of the estate is the value of all of the Decedent's property minus any liens and encumbrances that are held against the property.

“Liens and encumbrances” includes mortgages and all other debts of the Decedent, such as credit card debt, medical bills, and funeral expenses. Subtract the money that is owed from the value of the property to figure out the value of the estate.

It is important to understand that those debts do not go away when the property is distributed. The person who receives the property may be required to pay the debts.

6. The value of the entire estate located in Wyoming and subject to administration, less liens and encumbrances, does not exceed $400,000.00.
